This Policy Framework sets out the approach to relationships and sex education (RSE) across ODST.
The appendices have been adapted to reflect the circumstances in our school.

1. Aims

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) in our Trust are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare pupils for puberty and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies

2. Statutory Requirements

All ODST primary schools must provide relationships education to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017. This legislation also requires us to provide RSE to all pupils at our middle school (Y5–Y8).

ODST schools follow the National Curriculum. This includes the elements of sex education contained in the science curriculum at primary level.

In teaching RSE, we are required by our funding agreements to have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

We also have regard to legal duties set out in:

- Sections 406 and 407 of the Education Act 1996
- Part 6, chapter 1 of the Equality Act 2010
- The Public Sector Equality Duty (as set out in section 149 of the Equality Act 2010). This duty requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between different people when carrying out their activities

As a school within ODST, we teach RSE as set out in this Policy.

3. Policy Development

This ODST Policy Framework is intended to provide information about the RSE curriculum and delivery for all ODST schools. Each school is responsible for developing their own policy and for providing the correct appendices for all stakeholders.

For our school, the Policy has been developed in consultation with staff, pupils and parents/carers. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

1. Review – a member of staff team pulled together all relevant information including relevant up to date national and local guidance
2. Staff consultation – staff across our school were given the opportunity to look at the policy and make recommendations
3. Parent/stakeholder consultation – parents/carers and any interested stakeholders were invited to comment on the policy
4. Ratification – once amendments were made, the Policy was shared with the Local Governing Body for ratification.

4. Definition

RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of pupils, and involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.

RSE involves a combination of sharing information and exploring issues and values.

RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity.

5. Roles and responsibilities

The Scheme of Delegation

The Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees, delegated to the Education Quality Standards and Impact Committee, will approve the RSE Policy Framework and hold the Headteacher to account for its implementation through Local Governing Bodies.

Local Governing Bodies

Local Governing Bodies are responsible for supporting the implementation of the Policy at their school and reporting issues to the Board of Trustees if they occur.

The Headteacher

The Headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across their school, for making sure that resources and materials are shared with parents and carers and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from non-statutory components of RSE (see section 10).

Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Monitoring progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents/carers wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory components of RSE.

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the Headteacher.

Pupils

Pupils are supported to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, should treat others with respect and sensitivity.

6. Curriculum

Our RSE curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1 but we may need to adapt it as and when necessary.

We have developed the curriculum in consultation with parents/carers, pupils and staff, and taking into account the age, developmental stage, needs and feelings of our pupils. If pupils ask questions outside the scope of this Policy, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so that pupils are fully informed and do not seek answers online.

We will share any curriculum resources and materials with parents and carers upon request.

For more information about our curriculum, see our curriculum map in Appendix 1.

7. Delivery of RSE

INTRODUCTION

All schools must provide a curriculum that is broadly based, balanced and meets the needs of all pupils. Under section 78 of the Education Act 2002 and the Academies Act 2010, a PSHE curriculum:

- Promotes the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school and of society, and
- Prepares pupils at the school for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life.

At North Leigh Primary School, we are committed to the development of children's social and emotional skills, self-esteem, health, and physical and mental well-being. We are committed to developing the children's responsibilities towards themselves and others in our school, our local and global community. We believe high quality PSHE education delivered well supports pupil's learning capacity, help achieve academic potential and leave school equipped with skills they will need to live and work in modern Britain.

As a school, we have adopted The Jigsaw Programme to facilitate a comprehensive delivery of this important area of the curriculum, providing consistency and progression to our children's learning. The overview of the programme can be seen on the school website. Jigsaw supports the "Personal Development" and "Behaviour and Attitude" aspects required under the Ofsted Inspection Framework, as well as significantly contributing to the school's Safeguarding and Equality Duties, the Government's British Values agenda and the SMSC (Spiritual, Moral, Social, Cultural) development opportunities provided for our pupils. There is a focus on mindfulness which nurtures pupil development as compassionate and well-rounded human beings as well as building their capacity to learn and make good choices in life. Jigsaw provides opportunities to bring the whole school together, build relationships and enhance a positive ethos. It meets all the requirements of the statutory guidance for Sex and Relationships and Health Education.

AIMS

The Jigsaw PSHE programme aims to:

- Provide pupils with the knowledge, understanding, attitudes, values and skills they need in order to reach their potential as individuals and within the community
- Encourage pupils to take part in a wide range of activities and experiences across and beyond the curriculum, contributing fully to the life of their school and communities
- Support pupils in their recognition of self-worth and working well with others, becoming increasingly responsible for their own learning
- Enable pupils to reflect on their experiences and understand how they are developing personally and socially, tackling many of the spiritual, moral, social and cultural issues that are part of growing up
- Teach pupils the importance of understanding and respecting our common humanity; diversity and differences so that they can go on to form the effective, fulfilling relationships that are an essential part of life and learning

OBJECTIVES

Jigsaw PSHE will support the development of the skills, attitudes, values and behaviour, which enable pupils to:

- Have a sense of purpose
- Value self and others
- Form relationships
- Make and act on informed decisions
- Communicate effectively
- Work well with others
- Respond to challenge
- Be active citizens within the local community
- Explore issues related to living in a democratic society
- Become healthy and fulfilled individuals

CURRICULUM CONTENT

At North Leigh, PSHE follows a whole school approach, with every class focusing on the same unit of teaching at the same time. There are six units, one for each half term, broken into lessons that are delivered in a developmental and age-appropriate way so that they meet children's needs with suitable resources. We include the statutory Relationships and Health Education within our whole school PSHE programme.

The table below gives the learning theme of each of the six units, covering all areas of PSHE for the primary phase including statutory Relationships and Health Education. The learning deepens and broadens every year.

Term	Unit	Content
Autumn 1:	Being Me in My World	Includes understanding my own identity and how I fit well in the class, school and global community. Jigsaw Charter established.
Autumn 2:	Celebrating Difference	Includes anti-bullying (cyber and homophobic bullying included) and understanding of diversity
Spring 1:	Dreams and Goals	Includes goal-setting, aspirations, working together to design and organize fund-raising events, what would I like to do for work and how I would like to contribute to society
Spring 2:	Healthy Me	Includes drugs and alcohol education, self-esteem and confidence as well as healthy lifestyle choices, sleep, nutrition, rest and exercise
Summer 1:	Relationships	Includes understanding friendship, family and other relationships, conflict resolution and communication skills, bereavement and loss
Summer 2:	Changing Me	Includes Relationships and Sex Education in the context of coping positively with change

Relationships Education

Relationships Education in primary schools will cover 'Families and people who care for me', 'Caring friendships', 'Respectful relationships', 'Online relationships', and 'Being safe'.

The expected outcomes for each of these elements can be found further on in this policy. The mapping document: Jigsaw 3-11 and Statutory Relationships and Health Education explains how the Jigsaw Programme achieves this. Whilst the Relationships Unit covers most of the statutory Relationships Education, some of the outcomes are also taught elsewhere in Jigsaw e.g. the Celebrating Difference unit helps children appreciate that there are many types of family composition and that each is important to the children involved. This holistic approach ensures the learning is reinforced through the year and across the curriculum.

Parents should also be aware that the Church of England states in "Valuing All God's Children", 2019, that Relationships and Sex education should: "Make it clear that relationships and sex education is designed to prepare all pupils for the future, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. RSE must promote gender equality and LGBT equality and it must challenge discrimination. RSE must take the needs and experiences of LGBT people into account and it should seek to develop understanding that there are a variety of relationships and family patterns in the modern world." (Page 34)

Health Education

Health Education in primary schools covers ‘Mental wellbeing’, ‘Internet safety and harms’, Physical health and fitness’, Healthy eating’, ‘Drugs, alcohol and tobacco’, ‘Health and prevention’, ‘Basic First Aid’, ‘Changing adolescent body’.

The expected outcomes for each of these elements can be found further on in this policy. The mapping document: Jigsaw 3-11 and Statutory Relationships and Health Education explains how the Jigsaw Programme achieves this. Whilst the Healthy Me Unit covers most of the statutory Health Education, some of the outcomes are taught elsewhere in Jigsaw e.g. emotional and mental health is nurtured every lesson through the Calm me time, social skills are grown every lesson through the Connect Us activity and respect is enhanced through the use of the Jigsaw Charter.

Teaching about puberty is now a statutory requirement which sits within the Health Education part of the DfE guidance within the ‘Changing adolescent body’ strand, and in Jigsaw this is taught as part of the Changing Me Unit.

Sex Education

Although, sex education is not compulsory in primary schools, the DfE Guidance 2019 (p.23) recommends that all primary schools ‘have a sex education programme tailored to the age and the physical and emotional maturity of the pupils’.

Sex education ‘should ensure that both boys and girls are prepared for the changes that adolescence brings and – drawing on knowledge of the human life cycle set out in the national curriculum for science - how a baby is conceived and born’.

At North Leigh Primary School, we believe children should understand the correct, age-appropriate facts about human reproduction before they leave primary school. Understanding puberty and the changes that occur in boys’ and girls’ bodies is introduced in Year 4 and taught as a statutory requirement of Health Education.

Understanding human reproduction, conception and puberty is taught in Year 5 and puberty, conception and childbirth is age appropriately covered in Year 6.

Please see North Leigh’s RSE policy for further information and our RSE Curriculum Map for more detailed content coverage in each Year group.

Parents’ right to request their child be excused from Sex Education

“Parents have a right to request their child be withdrawn from some or all of sex education delivered as part of statutory Relationships and Sex Education” DfE Guidance p.17.

At North Leigh we define sex education as human reproduction and therefore inform parents of their right to request their child be withdrawn from the PSHE lessons that explicitly teach this during the Changing Me unit (Year 4, Lesson 2: Having a Baby, Year 5 Lesson 4: Conception, Year 6, Lesson 3: Conception to birth). Parents will be notified prior to the Changing Me unit, with signposting to the RSHE page on the school website.

If a parent wishes their child to be withdrawn from all, or part of sex education lessons, they should discuss this with the Headteacher and make it clear which aspects of the programme they do not wish their child to participate in. The parent should then inform the Headteacher in writing of their decision and the school will keep this on record. The school always complies with the wishes of the parents in this regard but values the opportunity to discuss concerns before a final decision is made. The request to withdraw will be reviewed annually with parents.

Drugs and Alcohol Education

This policy uses the definition that a drug is: “A substance people take to change the way they feel, think or behave” (United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime).

The term “drugs” includes:

- All illegal drugs
- All legal drugs including alcohol, tobacco and volatile substances which can be inhaled
- All over-the-counter and prescription medicines

Effective Drug and Alcohol Education can make a significant contribution to the development of the personal skills needed by pupils as they grow up. It also enables young people to make responsible and informed decisions about their health and well-being.

The drug and alcohol education programme demonstrates and encourages:

- Respect for self
- Respect for others
- Responsibility for their own actions
- Responsibility for their family, friends, schools and wider community

The Healthy Me Unit covers Drug and Alcohol Education Learning Outcomes for each year group, starting with how medicines work in our bodies and why it is important to use them safely in Year 2, to learning about different types of drugs, their uses and effects on the body in Year 6.

Please see North Leigh's PSHE Curriculum map for more information on content of teaching.

SEND and Differentiation

Jigsaw is written as a universal core curriculum provision for all children. Inclusivity is part of its philosophy. Teachers will need, as always, to tailor each lesson to meet the needs of the children in their classes. To support this differentiation, many Jigsaw lessons suggest creative learning activities that allow children to choose the media with which they work and give them scope to work to their full potential. To further help teachers differentiate for children in their classes with special educational needs, each unit of work includes a P-level grid with suggested activities working at each of those levels.

Assessment

Pupils are teacher assessed against age-related expectations for each unit, to support an end of year attainment judgement reported annually to parents.

The Learning Environment

Establishing a safe, open and positive learning environment based on trusting relationships between all members of the class, adults and children is vital. To enable this, it is important that "ground rules" are agreed and owned at the beginning of the year and are reinforced in every lesson through The Jigsaw Charter:

- We take turns to speak
- We use kind and positive words
- We listen to each other
- We have the right to pass
- We only use names when giving compliments or when being positive
- We respect each other's privacy

MONITORING & REVIEW

The School Leadership team monitors delivery of the programme through observation and discussion with staff and pupils to ensure consistent and coherent curriculum provision.

The School Improvement Committee of the Governing Body, together with the Headteacher monitors this policy every three years, or earlier if required to take account of any legislative changes and/or national policy development as well as feedback from North Leigh school staff. The committee reports its findings and recommendations to the Local Governing Body, as necessary, if the Policy needs modification. The Committee gives serious consideration to any comments from parents about the PSHE (RSE) programme and makes a record of all such comments.

Equality

This Policy will inform the school's Equalities Plan.

The DfE Guidance 2019 (p. 15) states, " Schools should ensure that the needs of all pupils are appropriately met, and that all pupils understand the importance of equality and respect. Schools must ensure they comply with the relevant provisions of the Equality Act 2010 under which sexual orientation and gender reassignment are amongst the protected characteristics...

At the point at which schools consider it appropriate to teach their pupils about LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender), they should ensure this content is fully integrated into their programmes of study for this area of the curriculum rather than delivered as a stand-alone unit or lesson. Schools are free to determine how they do this, and we expect all pupils to have been taught LGBT content at a timely point as part of this area of the curriculum".

At North Leigh Primary School, we promote respect for all and value every individual child. We also respect the right of our children, their families and our staff, to hold beliefs, religious or otherwise and understand that sometimes these may be in tension with our approach to some aspects of Relationships,

Health and Sex Education.

Please see "Including and valuing all children: What does Jigsaw teach about LGBTQ relationships?" on the curriculum page of our school website for further explanation.

Safeguarding

Teachers need to be aware that sometimes disclosures may be made during or following PSHE lessons; in which case, school safeguarding procedures must be followed immediately. All disclosures will be reported to a school Designated Safeguarding Lead.

8. Inclusivity

ODST schools will teach about these topics in a manner that:

- Considers how a diverse range of pupils will relate to them
- Is sensitive to all pupils' experiences
- During lessons, makes pupils feel:
 - Safe and supported
 - Able to engage with the key messages

They will also:

- Make sure that pupils learn about these topics in an environment that is appropriate for them, for example in:
 - A whole-class setting
 - Small groups or targeted sessions
 - 1-to-1 discussions
 - Digital formats
- Give careful consideration to the level of differentiation needed

Use of Resources

Our schools will consider whether any resources they plan to use:

- Are aligned with the teaching requirements set out in the statutory RSE guidance
- Would support pupils in applying their knowledge in different contexts and settings
- Are age-appropriate, given the age, developmental stage and background of our pupils
- Are evidence-based and contain robust facts and statistics
- Fit into our curriculum plan
- Are from credible sources
- Are compatible with effective teaching approaches

- Are sensitive to pupils' experiences and will not provoke distress

9. Use of External Organisations and Materials – Trust Statement

Across our Trust, we delegate responsibility for making sure that an agency and any materials used are appropriate and in line with our legal duties around political impartiality to each school.

Schools remain responsible for what is said to pupils. This includes making sure that any speakers, tools and resources used do not undermine the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

Our schools will:

- Make appropriate checks and engage with external agencies to make sure that their approach to teaching about RSE is balanced and it and the resources they intend to use:
 - Are age-appropriate
 - Are in line with pupils' developmental stage
 - Comply with:
 - This Policy
 - The Teachers' Standards
 - The Equality Act 2010
 - The Human Rights Act 1998
 - The Education Act 1996

- Only work with external agencies where they have full confidence in the agency, its approach and the resources it uses
- Make sure that any speakers and resources meet the intended outcome of the relevant part of the curriculum
- Review any case study materials and look for feedback from other people the agency has worked with
- Be clear on:
 - What they are going to say
 - Their position on the issues to be discussed
- Ask to see in advance any materials that the agency may use
- Know the named individuals who will be there and follow usual safeguarding procedures for these people
- Conduct a basic online search and address anything that may be of concern to the school, or to parents and carers
- Check the agency's protocol for taking pictures or using any personal data they might get from a session
- Remind teachers that they can say "no" or, in extreme cases, stop a session
- Make sure that the teacher is in the room during any sessions with external speakers
- Share any external materials with parents and carers

Our schools will not, under any circumstances:

- Work with external agencies that take or promote extreme political positions
- Use materials produced by such agencies, even if the material itself is not extreme

10. Parents' Right to Withdraw

Parents/carers have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory components of sex education within RSE.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in the Appendix of this Policy and addressed to the Headteacher of the school.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from sex education.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the pupil's educational record. The Headteacher will discuss the request with parents/carers and take appropriate action.

11. Training

Staff are trained on the delivery of RSE as part of their induction and it is included in our school's continuing professional development calendar.

The Headteacher may also invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.

12. Monitoring Arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by the Local Governing Body through the usual monitoring programme agreed. Pupils' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

This Policy Framework will be reviewed by the EQSI Committee of the Trust Board every 3 years. At every review, the school's Policy will be approved by LGB.

13. Appendix 1: Curriculum Map

Relationships and Sex Education Curriculum Map

Include as much detail as you can, including links to resources you'll use or sharing examples. Being transparent with parents/carers early on will make it easier for you to handle questions, concerns or objections.

TERM	TOPIC/THEME DETAILS	RESOURCES
Autumn 1	Being Me in My World	Includes understanding my own identity and how I fit well in the class, school and global community. Jigsaw Charter established.
Autumn 2	Celebrating Difference	Includes anti-bullying (cyber and homophobic bullying included) and understanding of diversity
Spring 1	Dreams and Goals	Includes goal-setting, aspirations, working together to design and organize fund-raising events, what would I like to do for work and how I would like to contribute to society
Spring 2	Healthy Me	Includes drugs and alcohol education, self-esteem and confidence as well as healthy lifestyle choices, sleep, nutrition, rest and exercise
Summer 1	Relationships	Includes understanding friendship, family and other relationships, conflict resolution and communication skills, bereavement and loss
Summer 2	Changing Me	Includes Relationships and Sex Education in the context of coping positively with change

14. Appendix 2: By the End of Primary School Pupils Should Know

TOPIC	PUPILS SHOULD KNOW
Families and people who care about me	• That families are important for children growing up because they can give love, security and stability • The characteristics of healthy family life, commitment to each other, including in times of difficulty, protection and care for children and other family members, the importance of spending time together and sharing each other's lives • That others' families, either in school or in the wider world, sometimes look different from their family, but that they should respect those differences and know that other children's families are also characterised by love and care • That stable, caring relationships, which may be of different types, are at the heart of happy families, and are important for children's security as they grow up • That marriage represents a formal and legally recognised commitment of two people to each other which is intended to be lifelong • How to recognise if family relationships are making them feel unhappy or unsafe, and how to seek help or advice from others if needed
Caring friendships	• How important friendships are in making us feel happy and secure, and how people choose and make friends • The characteristics of friendships, including mutual respect, truthfulness, trustworthiness, loyalty, kindness, generosity, trust, sharing interests and experiences and support with problems and difficulties • That healthy friendships are positive and welcoming towards others and do not make others feel lonely or excluded • That most friendships have ups and downs and that these can often be worked through so that the friendship is repaired or even strengthened and that resorting to violence is never right • How to recognise who to trust and who not to trust, how to judge when a friendship is making them feel unhappy or uncomfortable, managing conflict, how to manage these situations and how to seek help or advice from others, if needed
Respectful relationships	• The importance of respecting others, even when they are very different from them (for example, physically, in character, personality or backgrounds), or make different choices or have different preferences or beliefs • Practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships • The conventions of courtesy and manners • The importance of self-respect and how this links to their own happiness

	• That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including those in positions of authority • About different types of bullying (including cyberbullying), the impact of bullying, responsibilities of bystanders (primarily reporting bullying to an adult) and how to get help • What a stereotype is, and how stereotypes can be unfair, negative or destructive • The importance of permission-seeking and giving in relationships with friends, peers and adults
Online relationships	• That people sometimes behave differently online, including by pretending to be someone they are not • That the same principles apply to online relationships as to face-to face relationships, including the importance of respect for others online including when we are anonymous • The rules and principles for keeping safe online, how to recognise risks, harmful content and contact and how to report them • How to critically consider their online friendships and sources of information including awareness of the risks associated with people they have never met • How information and data is shared and used online
Being safe	• What sorts of boundaries are appropriate in friendships with peers and others (including in a digital context) • About the concept of privacy and the implications of it for both children and adults; including that it is not always right to keep secrets if they relate to being safe • That each person's body belongs to them and the differences between appropriate and inappropriate or unsafe physical and other contact • How to respond safely and appropriately to adults they may encounter (in all contexts, including online) whom they do not know • How to recognise and report feelings of being unsafe or feeling bad about any adult • How to ask for advice or help for themselves or others, and to keep trying until they are heard • How to report concerns or abuse, and the vocabulary and confidence needed to do so • Where to get advice e.g. family, school and/or other sources

15. Appendix 2: By the End of Secondary School Pupils Should Know

TOPIC	PUPILS SHOULD KNOW
Families	• That there are different types of committed, stable relationships • How these relationships might contribute to human happiness and their importance for bringing up children • What marriage is, including their legal status e.g. that marriage carries legal rights and protections not available to couples who are cohabiting or who have married, for example, in an unregistered religious ceremony • Why marriage is an important relationship choice for many couples and why it must be freely entered into • The characteristics and legal status of other types of long-term relationships • The roles and responsibilities of parents/carers with respect to raising of children, including the characteristics of successful parenting • How to: determine whether other children, adults or sources of information are trustworthy: judge when a family, friend, intimate or other relationship is unsafe (and to recognise this in others' relationships); and how to seek help or advice, including reporting concerns about others, if needed
Respectful relationships, including friendships	• The characteristics of positive and healthy friendships (in all contexts, including online) including: trust, respect, honesty, kindness, generosity, boundaries, privacy, consent and the management of conflict, reconciliation and ending relationships. This includes different (non-sexual) types of relationship • Practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships • How stereotypes, in particular stereotypes based on sex, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation or disability, can cause damage (e.g. how they might normalise non-consensual behaviour or encourage prejudice) • That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including people in positions of authority and due tolerance of other people's beliefs • About different types of bullying (including cyberbullying), the impact of bullying, responsibilities of bystanders to report bullying and how and where to get help • That some types of behaviour within relationships are criminal, including violent behaviour and coercive control • What constitutes sexual harassment and sexual violence and why these are always unacceptable • The legal rights and responsibilities regarding equality (particularly with reference to the protected characteristics as defined in the Equality Act 2010) and that everyone is unique and equal

Online and media	• Their rights, responsibilities and opportunities online, including that the same expectations of behaviour apply in all contexts, including online • About online risks, including that any material someone provides to another has the potential to be shared online and the difficulty of removing potentially compromising material placed online • Not to provide material to others that they would not want shared further and not to share personal material which is sent to them • What to do and where to get support to report material or manage issues online • The impact of viewing harmful content • That specifically sexually explicit material e.g. pornography presents a distorted picture of sexual behaviours, can damage the way people see themselves in relation to others and negatively affect how they behave towards sexual partners • That sharing and viewing indecent images of children (including those created by children) is a criminal offence which carries severe penalties including jail • How information and data is generated, collected, shared and used online
Being safe	• The concepts of, and laws relating to, sexual consent, sexual exploitation, abuse, grooming, coercion, harassment, rape, domestic abuse, forced marriage, honour-based violence and FGM and how these can affect current and future relationships • How people can actively communicate and recognise consent from others, including sexual consent and how and when consent can be withdrawn (in all contexts, including online)
Intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health	• How to recognise the characteristics and positive aspects of healthy one-to-one intimate relationships, which include mutual respect, consent, loyalty, trust, shared interests and outlook, sex and friendship • That all aspects of health can be affected by choices they make in sex and relationships, positively or negatively, e.g. physical, emotional, mental, sexual and reproductive health and wellbeing • The facts about reproductive health, including fertility and the potential impact of lifestyle on fertility for men and women • That there are a range of strategies for identifying and managing sexual pressure, including understanding peer pressure, resisting pressure and not pressurising others • That they have a choice to delay sex or to enjoy intimacy without sex • The facts about the full range of contraceptive choices, efficacy and options available • The facts around pregnancy including miscarriage

	• That there are choices in relation to pregnancy (with medically and legally accurate, impartial information on all options, including keeping the baby, adoption, abortion and where to get further help) • How the different sexually transmitted infections (STIs), including HIV/AIDs, are transmitted, how risk can be reduced through safer sex (including through condom use) and the importance of and facts about testing • About the prevalence of some STIs, the impact they can have on those who contract them and key facts about treatment • How the use of alcohol and drugs can lead to risky sexual behaviour • How to get further advice, including how and where to access confidential sexual and reproductive health advice and treatment
