Some ideas to help practise your spellings:

Word detectives:
Investigate your spelling words:

- underline the tricky bit
- circle prefixes/suffixes
- find smaller words hidden inside
- identify the root word

Use a spelling app:
eg Squeebles Spelling connect app

Voice recording
Record yourself saying each word, spelling it aloud and then using it in a sentence. You replay the recording while practising.

Look – Cover – Write – Check

- Look carefully at the word.
- Cover it.
- Write it from memory.
- Check and correct.
- identify the part of the word that is tricky.

Typing challenge
Type the weekly spellings into a document without looking at the list. Tthen use spellcheck to identify errors and work out what went wrong.

Post its
Write your spelling words on a set of post its and put them round the house or on the bathroom wall.

Spell it with a pattern
Write words using:

- bubble letters
- backwards writing
- tiny letters
- giant letters
- dots
- joined-up handwriting.

Family spelling challenge
Everyone attempts the weekly spellings. You become the "spelling expert" and checks everybody else's answers.

Please return your book to class Monday 14th December so that we can check on progress so far and stick in homework tasks for Spring 1.
